

Time-limited task groups

(These groups can cut across the responsibilities of more than one scrutiny committee and may include both county and district councillors)