1	Derek Cooknell	23 The Hyde, Winchcombe	1995-1996	2	1-2	On foot, for recreation, once on a path survey	Path known since 1985. Width given as 15-20 ft. No stiles, gates or obstructions noted. Notice recently erected denying right of way. Never given or denied permission.	Map completed by witness shows path claimed by applicant. Witness is applicant.
2	James Edward	107 Gretton Road, Winchcombe	1980	1	1	On foot, from Greet to Ireley, used once only	Cannot remember if there were any stiles, gates or notices. No obstructions noted or verbal notice given.	Map completed by witness shows path claimed by applicant.
3	T Petchey	9 Stanley Cottages, Gretton	1978	1	1	On foot, circular route from Winchcombe via Greet	Width given as "path on roadway/ farmyard". No stiles, gates, notices or obstructions noticed and no verbal notice ever given.	Map completed by witness shows path claimed by applicant.
4	Ernest Ottewell	33 Delavale Road, Winchcombe	1984-1990	6	4, on average	On foot, dog walking, leisure	Width given as "minor road width". No stiles, gates, notices or obstructions noted and no verbal notice ever given.	Map completed by witness shows path claimed by applicant.
5	Mr F Wood	Sunnybank, Greenway Lane, Gretton	1965-2008	43	12	On foot, delivering newsletters, visiting friends, from Gretton to and from Ireley Cottages	Width given as 2.5 m. Notes that there were gates at Broadway Road and at another past the old mill but they were never closed. Notices since 2006 at Mill Farm and Broadway Road saying "no footpath". He was told in 2006 by Mr C Pearce that it was not a right of way, and once or twice by his son-in-law too. Permission was given once in 2007 to walk through with a bicycle. States that the previous owner Raymond Pearce, who bought the property in 1903, never stopped anyone from using the path. A Sudeley map dated 1780 marked it as a public road. Also notes that 3 public footpath sign posts were removed since 2005 or 2006.	Map completed by witness shows path claimed by applicant. Use challenged in 2006.
6	Gerald Stewart	15 Orchard Road, Alderton	1989-1992	3	1	On foot, once as part of a path survey, and with a walking group in 1991 & 1992	Path known since 1982/83. Width given as "vehicle width track". No stiles, gates, notices, obstructions or verbal notice noted.	Map completed by witness shows path claimed by applicant.
