Responsibility for commissioning the new Places of Safety for

				victims of domestic abuse sits with Gloucester City Council in its capacity as the host Local Authority for the Gloucestershire Housing Partnership Team acting on behalf of the 6 district housing authorities. The new provision is currently out to tender, and we will not know the outcome of the tender until after the process has closed on 9th June and bids have been evaluated. It is the aim of the Gloucestershire Housing Partnership Team to commission up to an additional 24 Places of Safety which will bring the total number in the county to 36, but the final number will be dependent on what the current providers in the market can offer and it may take time to mobilise all the additional units.

14.	Member Question 58	To meet with Cllr Baker, officers, and representatives of the performing arts to discuss guidelines around schools and licenses for performing at festivals.	Cllr Stephen Davies Ann James	The response provided by officers at the last council meeting was detailed and based on the statutory requirements regarding licensing for children's performances. In short, there is a difference in law between the licensing requirements placed on children performing during school time that attend a maintained school and those placed on independent schools or academies. Officers have offered times/dates to meet as requested and will set this out. Whilst the government have stated their intent to change the legislation, until it does it is not in the gift of the county council to resolve this difference.
